6. [] BRIEFING Jack Brady, Chief of Staff, House International Relations Committee, called and said the Committee wanted a briefing on Zaire from either the Department of State or the Agency and asked that I get in touch with Brian Atwood, Congressional Relations at State, to figure out who should do the briefing. He said the full Committee would want the briefing sometime this week.

8. [] LIAISON In response to a request from Jack Blake, DDA, I called Deanne Seimer, General Counsel, DOD, to discuss DOD's concerns regarding certain provisions of the Civil Service Reform Act and Senator Patrick J. Leahy's (D., Vt.) recently introduced bill. She suggested that we put together an action plan for approaching the Members of the Senate Governmental Affairs Committee to work out exemptions for Intelligence Community entities. She suggested that I call Simon Lazurus, Associate Director of the Domestic Policy Staff, to get a rundown from him on how the Committee felt on this issue. I told her we were working on an action plan and would get back to her.

9. [] LIAISON Received a call from Martha MacDonald, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, requesting the date that former Deputy Director for Operations, William Nelson, retired. After checking, I told her the effective date of Mr. Nelson's retirement was 15 May 1976. She asked me if he attended some kind of a retirement party; then said never mind, that it wasn't important.

10. [] BRIEFING Accompanied [] and [] Cuba Analytical Section, NFAC, to the office of Representative Jim Lloyd (D., Calif.). Congressman Lloyd and one of his Administrative Assistants, Don Waunch, were briefed for slightly more than an hour on Cuban aviation, the status of Cuba's economy as such relates to hard currency purchases in the West and a wide variety of other miscellanea on Cuba. As it turns out the Congressman will not be going to Cuba this weekend and at this time he is not sure when his trip will eventually take place. The briefing went well and there were no questions left pending.
